First call Interreg VI-A Italy – Austria 2021-2027

Institutions from all sectors (universities, companies, research centers, public and private bodies, associations etc.) are called to apply for trans-regional projects between Austrian and Northern-Italian regions within five priorities of the new Interreg VI-A Italy-Austria programme. At least two partner organisations from at least one region of each country will apply for projects following the „lead agency principle“

The maximum project budget will be based on the number of regions of origin of those involved beneficiaries specified.

The 5 Priorities are:

Priority 1 "Innovation and Businesses“ (with one thematic focus on "life sciences")

Priority 3 "Climate Change and Biodiversity“

Priority 4 "Sustainable Tourism“

Priority 5 "Reduction of cross-border obstacles“.

The projects will be financed by ERDF (European Regional Development Fund) with a funding rate of 80%. 23.5 million euros of ERDF funds are available for this call.

The projects will be submitted via the Interreg-specific call platform „cohemon“.

Deadline of this call is April 19th, 2023

If you are planning an application within this call please contact Wolfram Rieneck or Tatjana Heckel from the Research & Innovation Services at MUI.

In addition, a consultation with the regional contact point at Tyrol regional government is mandatory before submission.
