COST project submission training June 4th, 2024

We would like to draw your attention to the next online training for main applicants in COST as part of the FFG Academy, which will take place on

04 June 2024 from 9:30 to 12:30 h

Q&A session until 13:00 h

The training content is relevant for both first-time main applicants and resubmitters.

The prerequisite for participation is a concrete project idea for a COST action. The training and the accompanying materials provide in-depth knowledge for preparing the COST application. In addition, the experiences from the last tenders will be taken into account. Best practice examples from funded COST campaigns, feedback from evaluators and exchanges with other submitters supplement the information.

The presentation will be in German. Some of the slides are in English. Questions can be asked in German or English.

Registrations are welcome under this link: https://www.ffg.at/europa/veranstaltungen/ffg-akademie_2024-06-04

Austrian Bioinformatics Workshop 2024

The workshop will offer a number of keynote speakers, insightful talks selected from abstract submissions, workgroup discussions and social activity. We will also focus on research data management, national research infrastructure and facilities for life science data, including the new ELIXIR node Austria. The number of participants will be limited to about 150.

When: 03 July 2024

Where: Graz
