Reminder

Pilot programme 1000 Ideas Programme

It is often difficult for researchers to take the first step when it comes to new, bold or particularly original research ideas that go beyond the general understanding of science and scholarship. This is where the FWF comes in and thus closes a gap in its funding portfolio with this new programme. The programme will fund projects dealing with forward-looking topics with a high degree of scholarly and transformative potential.

Deadline: First call is planned for Autumn 2019.
